Acknowledgement and Release of all Claims

The undersigned has been advised and understands that the mission/mission project may involve unusual risks to participants. Those risks may involve, among others, the following:

Dangers resulting from disease; from civil insurrection or warfare; from post-warfare hazards; from geographic features such as high altitude, which may have a deleterious effect on person with heart conditions or respiratory diseases; from extreme heat and humidity with no air conditioning available or, from extreme cold with no central heating. The foregoing is not an exhaustive list of dangers that may arise but is illustrative of some types of dangers that may be faced.

If during this mission, the participant is driving, then the following rules must be followed.

- Driver must have a valid Texas driver's license.
- Any child 5 and under must be in a child safety seat.
- Driver must drive defensively and courteously, obeying all traffic laws.
- Driver must use good judgment and be courteous while parking their vehicle in neighborhoods or other mission venues.
- Drivers are responsible for paying traffic violations of any kind or any expense related to a violation.
- Driver of vehicle must be adequately insured.

By participating in this mission, driver and all passengers agree to hold harmless Faithbridge from any and all liability, loss or damage that may occur as the result of any automobile accident.

The participant also assigns to Faithbridge the rights to use any photos, videotape and/or sound recordings made of me by or for Faithbridge. I hereby authorize the reproduction, sale, copyright, exhibition and/or distribution of said photos, videotapes, or sound recordings without limitation or compensation.

Mission Policy Agreement

Mission Site: _____ Dates: _____

Our Purpose

To share the love of Jesus Christ in word and deed. To provide spiritual, physical and emotional healing to the nations through building and sharing ourselves in Christian love.

Our Task

To share our abilities in partnership with our team members and mission site hosts. As servants, we participate in accomplishing particular ministry goals set by and in cooperation with our mission hosts – in their time and in their way.

Our Task versus Our Purpose

It is important that we be constantly mindful of the primary nature of our purpose. The task is important but is always secondary to realizing our true mission as followers of Christ...to share His love. When we are faithful in our purpose – the transformation that Christ intends, will occur.

Our Agreement

I realize that the following commitment is crucial to the effectiveness, quality and positive expression of our mission together. As a participating member of this team, I agree to :

1. Remember that I am a guest working at the invitation of a local missionary, pastor, medical clinic, etc. If my hosts are offended by bare arms, shirtless backs, or exposed legs, I will cover them. If they offer me goat meat stew, I will try it! I will remember the missionaries' prayer: "Where You lead me, I will follow; what You feed me, I will swallow!"
2. Remember that we have come to learn, not to teach. I may run across procedures that I feel are ineffective, or attitudes that I find close-minded. I will resist the temptation to inform our hosts about "how we do things." I will be open to learning other people's methods and ideas.
3. Respect the host's view of Christianity. I recognize that Christianity has many faces throughout the world, and that the purpose of this trip is to witness and experience faith lived out in a new setting.
4. Develop and maintain a servant attitude toward all nations and my teammates.

See other side

5. Respect my team leader(s) and his or her decisions.
6. Refrain from gossip. I may be surprised at how each person will blossom when freed from the concern that others may be passing judgment.
7. Refrain from complaining. I know that travel can present numerous unexpected and undesired circumstances, but the rewards of conquering such circumstances are innumerable. Instead of whining and complaining, I will be creative and supportive.
8. Respect the work that is going on in the country with the particular church, agency or person(s) that we are working with. I realize that our team is here for just a short while, but the missionary and local church are here for the long term. I will respect their knowledge, insights, and instructions.
9. Attend all team preparation classes and follow-up meetings.
10. Refrain from negative political comments or hostile discussion concerning our host country's politics.
11. Remember not to be exclusive in my relationships. I will make every effort to interact with all members of the team.
12. Refrain from any activity that could be construed as romantic interest toward a national. I realize certain activities that seem innocuous in my own culture may seem inappropriate in others.
13. Abstain from the consumption of alcoholic beverages or the use of tobacco or illegal drugs while on the trip.
14. Remember that we are here to serve the Lord, and that I will spend time in prayer and in the Word, focusing on God's will in every situation.
15. Remember that I am a servant of Christ called by Him to be in mission to those in need. I will serve to the full extent of my abilities, spiritually and physically.
